Fillibuster Expedition.

If there is anything ridiculous in the history of the times, the movements of Gen. Walker with regard to Nicaragua, will come under that head. He has made two attempts to conquer that country, and failed. He is now said to be upon a third trial, and the President of the United States has issued his proclamation against him.

Of course President Buchanan is right in thus proclaiming against this movement, but we don't think much harm is to be apprehended from the filibuster. In our opinion, Nicaragua is able to take care of herself in spite of all that Walker can do. The General will be hung, if he ever lands there again.

Any one who looks at the map, and thinks of the kind of people that inhabit Nicaragua, will not have much sympathy for a filibuster who has failed twice in attempts upon the sovereignty of that country. Nicaragua is a part of Central America—a country occupying a length of 900 miles upon the Isthmus of Darien, and a breadth of 70 to 400 miles. This area is divided into Guatemala, Salvador, Honduras, Costa Rica, Mosquito, and Nicaragua. The last named is next to the largest of these divisions, and only covers an area of 45,000 square miles, with a population not greater than 250,000.

The population is divided into four distinct castes—Indians, Whites, Blacks, and Ladinos. The last named are a mixture of the other three, and all these castes are about as worthless as their race is indolent. One Kentuckian is equal to half a dozen of these sun-burnt and no-account people. If Walker had had enough for such an undertaking, his first descent upon Nicaragua would have been successful. Indeed he was once master of the country, but did not possess the talents to remain so. He was so dizzled with his own inspired power, that he cast off the reality for the unsubstantial name.

We are opposed to filibustering in all its forms, but more opposed to the unsuccessful shape than any other. We might have some sympathy for Walker if he had succeeded or was likely to succeed, but the crime of failure added again and again to that of invading a weak and peaceful country, is too much for endurance.

He had much better quit the business. The house of the brave young Americans he has left, blushing upon the burning sands of Nicaragua ought to teach him to quit. All that he can do by another expedition is to sacrifice more blood and treasure.

We can never conquer Nicaragua. The other powers of the world won't permit him to do so. They will hang him as high as Hanan the next time he attempts it. And if he is captured by our own countrymen, under the proclamation of the President, it will be as lucky a thing for him as the taking by Com. Faulding upon a previous occasion. We warn all of our young men to beware of the filibuster Walker. He will not do to tie to. His undertaking is certain failure and ruin.

A Suggestion.

The Journal of yesterday contained an article, one and a half mortal columns in length, upon the contested seats of the Indiana Senators. Can't the editor do something of that kind in denunciation of the Baltimore elections, where his political friends beat, bribe, kill, and disburse voters?

He complained the other day that Sickles, of N. York, was elected by United States soldiers, when the fact was these soldiers were run off the mob and not allowed to vote, though they were legally entitled to exercise the elective franchise in that case. He now complains of the Indiana Senators with about as much reason as he did of the election of Sickles. We insist upon his attention being turned to the Plug Legs, Rip Legs, Blood Tubs, Red Skins, and other horribly named Know Nothings who make the elections of that city a by-word and a mockery. There is cause for condemnation there, but the editor of the Journal can't say a word. All is right in hell eyes, so far as infamous Baltimore is concerned.

R. W. WOOLLEY.—The Border Star, published at Westport, Mo., speaks in the following deserved complimentary terms of R. W. Woolley, of this State, who was tendered the post of Secretary of the Spanish Legation under Col. Preston. The friends of Mr. Woolley, in Kentucky, want him for Attorney General of the State, which may account for his declining the foreign office. We endorse all the pretty things the Star says of him:

Interesting from Washington.
General Walker and the President—Visitors to Obtain an Interview—Probable Action of the British Naval Forces—Walker's Intentions.

(Special Dispatch to the New York Times.)

WASHINGTON, Monday, Nov. 3.

Gen. Walker has called an interview with the President to-day, as he anticipates, but he is given to understand, that he will probably be received to-morrow. He has "outside" assurances that Mr. Buchanan will not relax a muscle or alter a word he has said, and he is determined to lay the whole case before him if permitted, so to do, and then leave with his "emigrante" to Nicaragua, regardless of the result of a decision in the present. He seems to apprehend that his departure will be interrupted by the Government de facto of Nicaragua during the pendency of Sir William Ousey's trial. This much is certain, if he is authorized to say.

Walker is a man of principle. The facts assumed in the proclamation are all erroneous. The passengers on the vessel advertised to leave Mobile on the 11th, pay their own passage, and the General says he will not go on the ship if it is to be made an excuse for intercepting him.

Walker and J. L. White, Esq., had a long interview to-day, and I learn, came to an understanding with the General. Walker succeeded in landing in Nicaragua, is to proclaim a general amnesty, ratify the Case-Viceroy treaty, and recognize the White and Stebbins governments.

This Ritter is intended for Liverpool, and is determined to do what he can for the independence of the country, and then become a candidate for the presidency. Since then he has been a bitter enemy.

I notice that General Walker speaks with much respect, but with great respect, of General Jerez, his former friend and companion in arms. It will be recalled that it was Jerez who first invaded Nicaragua, although a pronouncement of a friendly alliance was later made a candidate for the presidency. Since then he has been a bitter enemy.

The action of President Buchanan in commanding the steamer Clarendon, has met with the approbation of the citizens generally, and are found to complain. Since the late diabolical murders and assassinations in Baltimore, the President is doing his best to restore the propriety of his administration.

General Devore has resumed his position at the head of the Indian Bureau.

Every lieutenant in the Navy is now under orders to be active in service.

Information has been received from Col. Miles, commanding against the Navajos. He has 2,500 strong, and possessed of an abundance of powder and ball. They own sixty horses and half a million sheep. Miles thinks we may have another Florida war on hand.

The Middle Register states that the circular inviting emigrants to join a vessel to sail for Nicaragua from Mobile on the 10th Inst., was never signed by General Walker, and was written by his Adjutant, Mr. House. The Register adds, the emigration consists of the same number of emigrants as the Casavieillard treaty, and to be apprehended that the General will not be permitted to land at Graytown, or on our part of the Mico River. Is the British Government to be held responsible for the British?—
